

The Barn Dance Tom T. Hall

One night as I was sleeping, something awakened me
There was a light on in my barn so I went down to see
I peeked through a big ol' crack in the door and what do you think I saw
The animals were having a barn dance right in the horse's stall

Chorus:

And there was a chicken doing the chicken reel and the muskrat rambled on
The old cow did the cow-cow boogie and the rooster crowed a song
A mouse came out of his hiding place and he danced on one leg
The old hen got so tickled that she almost laid an egg

They were all dressed up for the barn dance it made me want to laugh
The rabbit wore a big bowtie and the pig was a looking in the looking glass
And the goose danced with the gander till an old dog boddied in
The horse was horsin' around a lot till the mare got mad at him
