I've been waiting for the tides to change for the waves to send you my way
C F C F C G
I see you darling but you pixilate, it gets hard to take these days
C F C F C G
But we'll hold the line, I won't let go 'cause I'll be there when you can finally make it home
C F C F C G G///
And I don't mind, 'cause we both know that we'll be fine when you can finally make it home

Am F C G
Because when I'm in a room with you that missing piece is found (ohohh)
Am F C G
You know when you're by my side, darling, nothing can bring us down (ohohh)

C F C F C G
I remember happy wasted days. Summers golden haze in our eyes
C F C F C G
Lifting up above the breaking waves, memories floating back to my mind
C F C F C G
You said hold the line, I won't let go, 'cause I'll be there when you can finally make it home

And I don't mind, 'cause we both know that we'll be fine when you can finally make it home
